

Instructional Animation

English Scripts

Long Vowel Movements

Let's review the long a phoneme and movement. The long a phoneme is the first phoneme in the word acorn, and it sounds like the name of the letter a.

For the movement, write the lowercase a in the air with two fingers while saying A A .

Remember, you can use the posters to check if a vowel sound is short - short or long-long.

Let's review the long e phoneme and movement.

The long e phoneme is the first phoneme in the word eagle, and sounds like the name of the letter e. For the movement, write the lowercase e in the air with two fingers while saying E, E, E.

Remember, you can use the posters to check if a vowel sound is short or long.

Let's review the long i phoneme and movement. The long i phoneme is the first phoneme in the word ice, and it sounds like the name of the letter i. For the movement, write the lowercase i in the air with two fingers while saying i, i.

Remember, you can use the posters to check if a vowel sound is short or long.

Let's review the long o phoneme and movement.

The long o phoneme is the first phoneme in the word ocean, and it sounds like the name of the letter o. For the movement, write the lowercase o in the air with two fingers while saying o, o.

Remember, you can use the posters to check if a vowel sound is short or long.

Let's review the long u phoneme and movement. The long u phoneme is the first phoneme in the word unicorn, and sounds like the name of the letter u. For the movement, write the lowercase u in the air with two fingers while saying u, u.

Remember, you can use the posters to check if a vowel sound is short or long.